

Practices Join to Form Apatoff | Peters, LLC

May 2, 2005 (Rockville, MD and Bethesda, MD). Two fast-paced and growing law practices joined today to form the law firm of Apatoff | Peters, LLC. Principals Adam Apatoff and Craig Peters have combined their practices to counsel businesses and individuals on Technology, Tax, Corporate and Estate Planning matters.

Mr. Apatoff was previously a partner in the Washington, DC firm of Kalik Lewin. Prior to establishing his own legal practice, Mr. Peters was a tax attorney and manager in the corporate tax group of Ernst & Young, LLP.

"Craig brings sophisticated tax counsel and strategy for clients with growing businesses and adds strong personal legal advice for entrepreneurs and individual clients looking to protect their legacy and provide for their families for years to come," said Mr. Apatoff.

Mr. Peters agreed, "Adam's experience in complex technology and corporate transactions allows us to provide additional value to clients growing their companies. This combination of Technology, Tax, Corporate and individual counseling brings a unique sophistication and balance for business and individuals seeking sound and reasonable solutions to legal and business issues."

The firm will have offices in Rockville, MD and Bethesda, MD, serving the heart of the I-270 Technology Corridor, as well as clients across the United States. The firm is on the world wide web at <http://www.apatoffpeters.com>.

Apatoff | Peters, LLC counsels clients on Technology, Tax, Corporate and Estate Planning matters.
