

Apatoff | Peters Again Among Washington's Top Lawyers

July 28, 2006 (Rockville, MD). Firm Principals Craig Peters and Adam Apatoff were both named finalists for Top Washington Lawyers by the Washington Business Journal (<http://washington.bizjournals.com/>). Mr. Apatoff was recognized for his work in the area of Technology Transactions. Mr. Peters was recognized as one of the Washington, DC-area's "Young Guns" for excellence among attorneys under 40.

This is the second consecutive year that Apatoff | Peters was included in the annual listing of the Top Washington Lawyers, In 2005. Mr. Apatoff was named one of the area's "Young Guns." Mr. Peters' nomination this year in the same category reflects the strength of the firm's tax and corporate practice, particularly his expertise in work related to securing research and development tax credits for high technology companies. A complete list of the finalists in all categories appears in today's edition of the Washington Business Journal.
