

Craig Peters Named Top Washington 'Young Gun' Tax Lawyer

September 15, 2006 (Rockville, MD). Firm Principal Craig Peters was named as one of the Top Washington Lawyers by the Washington Business Journal (<http://washington.bizjournals.com/>) at a reception before the Washington-area legal community yesterday evening. Mr. Peters was the only tax attorney among the nine Washington lawyers recognized as 'Young Guns,' for excellence among attorneys under 40.

"This recognition as one of the Top Washington Lawyers underscores Craig's skills as one of the premier tax practitioners and business lawyers in the area," said Firm Principal Adam Apatoff, "we are most pleased at his success and congratulate him on this well-deserved honor."

In 2005, Mr. Apatoff was named one of the Top Washington Lawyers as one of the area's 'Young Guns.' This year, Mr. Apatoff was one of four finalists for Top Washington Lawyer in the area of Technology Transactions.

Mr. Peters and Mr. Apatoff were selected from among over 400 nominees for recognition as Top Washington Lawyers. They, together with all the finalists, are each profiled in today's edition of the Washington Business Journal.
